

G.A.3. SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Working Material: Assessing the skills of a social entrepreneur

Instructions: This worksheet will help you identify your skills as a social entrepreneur and how you can use your skills for social impact.

Part 1: Assessing your current skills

Rate your skills on a scale of 1 to 5: 1 = Very low level, 5 = Extremely high level.

Skills	Rating (1-5)	Example where I used this skill
Empathy
Creative problem solving
Communication
Sustainable thinking
Social responsibility
Activism and social awareness
Teamwork and cooperation
Financial literacy and innovation
Leadership and inspiration
Project Management
Digital and media skills
Time management
Organizational skills
Persistence and patience

How to use this table?

- Identification of challenges: Choose one or more social challenges from the examples in the work material. Think about which of the chosen challenges you find personally meaningful and why.
- Skills Analysis: Rate each of the listed skills on a scale of 1 (very low level) to 5 (extremely high level).
- Action planning: Based on the necessary skills, design concrete activities to solve the challenge.

Examples of social challenges and the social skills needed to solve them

Social challenge	Social skills required
Poverty and economic inequality	Empathy, negotiation, organization, creative problem solving, financial literacy.
Pollution and environmental protection	Team work, creativity, communication, project management, sustainable thinking.
Education for marginalized groups	Empathy, communication, mentoring, organization, adaptability.
Integration of migrants and refugees	Multicultural sensitivity, empathy, communication, organization, conflict resolution.
Community Mental Health	Active listening, empathy, communication, stress management, support and empowerment.
Digital literacy in rural areas	Technical literacy, mentoring, communication, adaptability, project management.
Creative development of communities through art	Creativity, organization, project management, communication, teamwork.
Healthcare for the poor	Empathy, problem solving, communication, sustainable thinking, collaboration.
Discrimination and social inclusion	Multicultural sensitivity, empathy, conflict resolution, advocacy, adaptability.

Part 2: How could I use my skills to create social impact?

Think of ways you can apply your skills to solve problems in the community, help others or start initiatives.

Examples:

- Communication skills: Organize awareness campaigns.
- Creativity: Come up with innovative projects to protect the environment or help the community.
- Teamwork: Join a local initiative or volunteer project.

Applying my skills:

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____

1.How could I use my strengths to solve problems in the community?

---

2.Is there a project or idea where I can apply my skills?

---

3.What is my ultimate goal in creating social impact?

---

Part 3: Planning the action

Based on a previous assessment of one's own skills and identified social challenges, design concrete activities that will contribute to solving the selected problems. This involves thinking creatively and applying skills practically to contribute to solving challenges. Activities can include volunteering, organizing events, joining initiatives or starting your own project.

Challenge:
Skills	The solution